

ECONOMETRIX
(PTY) LTD

DR AZAR JAMMINE

Director and Chief Economist, Econometrix

Dr Azar Jammine is Director and Chief Economist of Econometrix (Pty) Ltd, South Africa's leading independent economic research consultancy and forecasting company, established in 1982. He has been in this position since December 1985 and has established a significant profile in South Africa as an analyst and commentator on domestic and international economic affairs.

Dr Jammine has conducted over 4000 presentations to leading client corporations and other institutions, as well as at conferences dealing with the local and international economic environments. In this capacity he has also been invited by several corporations to serve as independent non-executive director. Dr Jammine was recently honoured with a Lifetime Achievement Award at The South African Professional Services Awards Association (sponsored by Sanlam).

Academically, Dr Jammine obtained a BSc (Hons) in Mathematical Statistics and a BA (Hons) in Economics at Wits, followed by an MSc in Economics from the LSE and a PhD at the London Business School.